Parent consent for release of student photographs, video images, recordings, and creative works.

There are several occasions throughout the school year when the school or individual classroom teachers will have cause to photograph or videotape classroom or school-related activities. These images (including student photographs, videos, artwork, writing and other creative works) may be published or distributed through printed or electronic media, including the school Facebook web site. Images may also be released to local media to highlight important or interesting stories associated with the school district. Some common uses of student images include but are not limited to: promotion of clubs, activities or classroom projects; recognition of achievement; promotion of school programs; or celebration of academic or artistic qualities.

You are receiving this letter to request permission for Tri-County Christian School to publish images of your child on the TCCS Facebook web site or in printed materials. Please indicate your preference below:

Student's Full Name: _____

For the purposes stated in this letter,

- I DO give permission for photographic or video depictions of my child(ren) to be published in school-related materials, used on school web pages, or shared with the media as needed.
- I DO NOT give permission for photographic or video depictions of my child(ren) to be published in school-related materials, used on school web pages, or shared with the media.
